"Kaia is a genius."
~ Garry Shandling, comedian

Kaia Alexander is the award-winning author of Stealth Pitch and creator of Mood Genome™. She's a UN speaker and neurodivergent entrepreneur with expertise in story and emotional pattern recognition. A former Hollywood development executive, she worked on major motion pictures and later founded the Entertainment Business School. Her work as a systems architect of the Mood Renaissance bridges story and technology for human/AI synergy. In color.
